A Divine Place, Beyond East and West

Naitauba is not just a piece of land.
It is a Divine Place.

This will be the Spiritual Vortex on Earth. There is nothing on Earth comparable to this Place of Spirituality.

– Adi Da Samraj, The Eternal Stand

From the air, looking down at Naitauba, it looks like a separate place surrounded by water. Yet, deep below the surface of the ocean, Naitauba is connected to every place on Earth.

This is the secret of going deep.

– Adi Da Samraj, The Eternal Stand

A Sanctuary of Blessing

Naitauba Island, Fiji, is the site of Adi Da Samrajashram, spiritually empowered by Avatar Adi Da as the primary place from which His Divine Blessing flows perpetually to the world. As His principal Hermitage Sanctuary and Mahasamadhi burial site, it is devoted to contemplative spiritual life and practice in relationship to Him. It is also strongly committed to the principles of green living, sustainable energy, self-sufficiency, cooperation, tolerance, and peace. Adi Da's devotees and the local Fijian and Indo-Fijian staff live together in harmony, serving and protecting the sacred environment of the island. As a unique sanctuary of spiritual blessing and rare environmental significance, Naitauba Island is a true sacred gift to the world. For more, please see www.naitauba.org

One of the great purposes of this Hermitage is to provide a human setting of exemplary practitioners, so that all individuals who come here will enjoy the most direct in-life instruction in the ego-transcending practice that I Give to My devotees... most fundamentally, it is a matter of accepting Happiness and Love (or Love-Bliss) as the Real Condition of existence.

– Adi Da Samraj, The Eternal Stand

I Am a Point of Connection for people to the traditional ways. My becoming a citizen of Fiji was not only to Establish Myself here on Naitauba. It was based on My evident Love of this country and its people, who are our friends, and on My Concern for the total environment of the Earth.

The Winds of Change

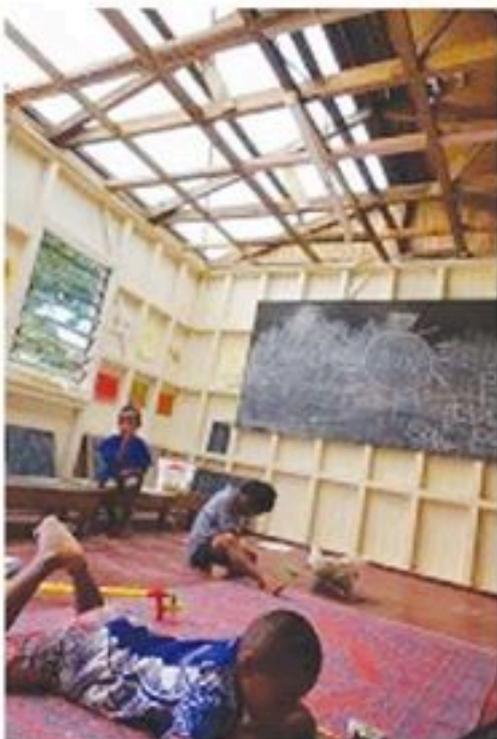

Tropical Cyclone Winston

On 20 February 2016 Naitauba, along with many other islands in Fiji, was directly in the path of Tropical Cyclone Winston, the fiercest storm ever recorded in the Southern Hemisphere. It caused severe damage to temples, residences, boats, infrastructure, and trees, although fortunately there were no injuries among the more than 200 residents of the Island. Sadly, more than 40 people died in other parts of Fiji.

We are very grateful that over the past 6 months, many retreatants have come to help with the restoration process, including volunteers who have generously offered their skills and expertise and are discovering Adi Da. Much restoration has been accomplished; much still remains to be done. We are also beginning the long-term process of re-building on higher ground.

Naitauba Primary School and Safe-House

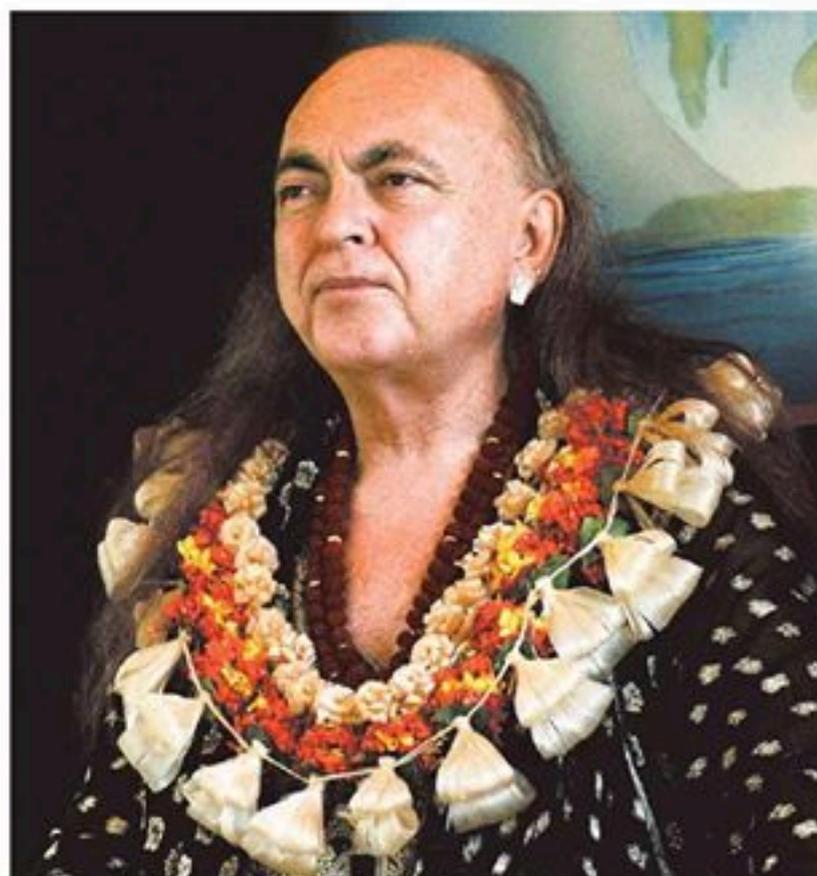

Ciqomi is the village provided for Naitauba employees and their families, most of whom have children. Waves and high winds destroyed low-lying houses and sent roofs and porches flying. The community hall where most families took refuge lost part of its roof, and the primary school and kindergarten sustained serious damage.

A new primary school and safe-house for the whole community has been designed, which will withstand Category 5 cyclones. A perfect location has been identified on higher ground.

With the threat of more dangerous global weather patterns and the upcoming storm season, work on this project is beginning. If you would like to help, please go to: www.naitauba.org/project/naitauba-primary-school-and-safe-house

I Communicate the Principle that is universal to all traditions and that allows all traditions to happily relate to one another. I should be understood as the Unifying Presence That Blesses all peoples for that purpose.
